

Dvir Froylich, MD,

Dr. Froylich was born in Haifa, Israel and he is a graduate of the Technion, Institute of Technology. He obtained there his medical degree at the Rappaport Faculty of Medicine, Haifa, Israel. His General Surgery residency was at Carmel Medical Center, Haifa, Israel and at Mount Sinai Hospital, NYC, NY, USA. He completed his fellowship in Bariatric Surgery and Advanced Minimally Invasive Surgery at the Cleveland Clinic, Cleveland, OH, USA.

Dr. Froylich is currently the director of Bariatric Surgery serviced at Carmel Medical Center. He is a member of the ISMBS, IFSO and a candidate member of the ASMBS. He is a Lecturer at the Rappaport Faculty of Medicine. Dr. Froylich resides in Haifa, Israel with his wife and three children.